The “Obama then – Obama now” signs remind us of the hope we had in '08 and our frustration now with him at the helm. His '08 promise to reduce our debt and balance our budget added $5.5 trillion to our now $16 trillion debt and mortgaged our future to communist China.

In 08 our space program aimed far beyond the moon. It's now in mothballs and we're hitching rides with the Russians to an ageing platform in the sky.

In '08 we bragged of telling Russians to “Tear down that wall!” and “free the people of East Germany,” now we're embarrassed by Obama bowing to world leaders and whispering to Russia's outgoing president “Wait until after my next election, when I'll have more flexibility to reduce our missile defenses.”

In '08 we were free to practice our Christian faith and aggressively defend unborn babies, now we're forced to abandon our faith and fund abortions through his compulsory healthcare. In '08 we took heart when he condemned his minister for invoking God to damn our country, now we watched him argue to exclude God's name from the Democrat platform at their 2012 convention.

In '08 he stood at GM' plants promising workers, “If I'm elected, you'll be building trucks here for the next 100 years.” Now we drive past vacant plants, closed dealerships, and unemployment lines that stretch from Janesville to Rockford and on to Detroit. In '08 workers relied on funded pension plans now raided by union leaders to keep him in office.

In '08 he promised shovel-ready manufacturing jobs then joined labor to sue Boeing for building plants in “Right-to-Work” South Carolina. In '08 he inherited a triple “A” rating he's now downgraded to double “A-minus.”

In '08 he touted family values, suggesting his family as a role model. In 2012 LifeSiteNews' called him “beyond creepy” for using daughters Sasha 11 and Malia 14 as “props to promote Planned Parenthood's position on abortion.” In '08 he asked us to “tighten our budgets” suggesting Michelle as our example. In 2012 Judicial-Watch reported her family trip to Africa and Botswana cost taxpayers $424,142. Her family included Mom, Malia, and Sasha logged in as "Senior Staffers," a niece and nephew, her makeup and hairstylist, and secret service agents for security. They flew at $12,188 per hour eating 192 meals costing taxpayers $928.44. Michelle then sent 13 year old Malia with 12 friends escorted by 25 secret service agents to Mexico for spring break.

Prior to Obama, terrorist' attacks were met with shock and awe; since he dated our withdrawal, terrorists call him "The Sheppard" leading willing sheep to be slaughtered. On 9/12/12 with 21 U.S. embassies under attack, he remained campaigning in Las Vegas, missed critical CIA briefings, and then issued an apology for a movie offending Muslims.

We're a proud nation of many faiths tested under fire. It's time to take charge of our destiny and control of our nation. It's time we elect Mitt Romney to lead the charge.
